Tragedy in Chicago.

In a throng of people at the church door of one of the most fashionable congregations in Chicago a gray-haired millionaire bank president was remorselessly shot yesterday by his stepson to avenge or shield a woman charged with continued adultery. The woman was no less a person than Mrs. Rawson, wife of the banker shot and mother of the assassin. The banker is Stephen W. Rawson, president of the Union Trust Company of Chicago. William Lee, aged 17, is the stepson. Banker Rawson, with five bullets in his body, and apparently in a dying condition, was hastily picked off the blood-spattered curb, and tumbled into one of the cabs of the city. He had been waiting for the wealthy worshippers. Young Lee, with an empty, still smoking revolver in his hand, was hurriedly thrown into a different conveyance—the blue wagon of the police patrol. Rawson had been charged by his wife with perjury and other offenses. He on the other hand, alleged that she, although prominent in society, and a beautiful woman in appearance, was really a disreputable, blasphemous, devilish tempered adventuress, who coveted only his money. For a year or more the two have been fighting each other in the divorce court, and within a week the banker has fled against her additional charges of adultery. The wounds are thought to be fatal. The murderer was arrested at his own request. When apprised of the murder, Mrs. Rawson said to a reporter, "I am glad of it. He deserved it."

"What was it done for?" "Because Rawson has made me out on the streets to be a public prostitute," "I'll stand by the boy," she cried, raising her arm with a dramatic gesture. "He did no more than any boy would do. He is the son of his mother." Then she began to pace to and fro over the heavily carpeted floor. "I intended to do it myself," she exclaimed, suddenly stepping in the middle of the room. Mrs. Rawson has led a checkered life, having been married three times. She was divorced once and as a department clerk in the government service at Washington is understood to have been concerned in some decidedly sensational incidents. Rawson declared that his wife had made false representations to him to get him to marry her when she represented that she was the widow of Chas. G. Lee, who left her comfortably off and the mother of two children. He further in divorce proceedings testified that his wife was married in New Orleans on April 3, 1886, to John Slaymaker, who at the time the bill was filed was living in Arkadelphia, Ark., and that a divorce obtained from Slaymaker a few years later was illegal, consequently the marriage with the defendant should be declared void. On August 5, 1886, he refused to place any money to her credit at the bank, and September 29 she was refused admittance to his house, and detectives left on guard to prevent her gaining entrance. While the suit was pending a porter on a St. Louis sleeper testified that Mrs. Rawson had occupied a berth with a strange man on his sleeper. This story was partially corroborated by other porters and car conductors. All these allegations were emphatically denied by Mrs. Rawson, and later the colored porter was brought up before Justice Lyon on the charge of perjury when he acknowledged the truthfulness of his former statements. Since then every point, especially in the matter of adultery, has been contested with increased bitterness, the culmination being Rawson's additional charges and yesterday's horrible tragedy.

King Humbert of Italy, one day, after listening patiently to a certain court wit who had told most extravagant yarns, remarked quietly: "I can easily believe that story, because I have had a more curious experience myself. On one occasion I had been out hunting all day long, and was returning home empty handed, when a thrush flew up within range of my gun, and thinking it better than nothing, I blazed away at it, and, to my great astonishment, brought down not only the thrush, but a good sized hawk. Just at the moment when I pulled the trigger this hawk, which was also out hunting, had swooped down upon the thrush, and in consequence the one bullet struck both birds. But that was not all. The report of my gun had scared up a rabbit, and as luck would have it, the hawk fell directly on bunny's back, and, being only wounded, immediately attacked the poor beast so fiercely that he, suffering under the cruel claws, began to dig up the earth frantically with his paws, and presently uncovered two immense truffles. So you see, with a single shot I bagged a fine hawk to stuff, a thrush to broil, a nice fat rabbit to stew, and two splendid truffles for the seasoning."

A Sad Case of Poisoning is that of any man or woman afflicted with disease or derangement of the liver, resulting in poisonous accumulations in the blood, scrofulous affections, sick-headaches, and diseases of the kidneys, lungs or heart. These troubles can be cured only by going to the primary cause, and putting the liver in a healthy condition. To accomplish this result speedily and effectually nothing has proved itself so efficacious as Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which has never failed to do the work claimed for it, and never will.

JUDICIAL SALE OF THE FARM CALLED "GOLAN."
The residence of the late Wm. Gray Somerville, near Mitchell's station, Culpeper co., Va. By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Culpeper county, pronounced on the 13th day of September, 1887, in the chancery suit of "Somerville, substituted trustee, vs. Somerville and others," I, as commissioner of said court, appointed for the purpose by said decree, shall, on the 22d DAY OF OCTOBER, 1887, at 12 o'clock m., proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on the premises, either in the whole or in parcels, that well-known and valuable tract of land called formerly the residence of the late James Somerville, of Culpeper county, containing about 630 ACRES.

GOLAN,
This is a desirable tract of land, well-wooded and watered, with a very good DWELLING HOUSE thereon; ordinary out-houses and ordinary fencing. The land is in quite good condition, and with good cultivation is usually quite productive.

The neighborhood is desirable, being near Mitchell's and Rapid Ann stations, on the Virginia Midland Railway, and the society is excellent; very near and excellent pay and free schools. Terms: Money enough to cover the costs of suit and expenses of sale must be paid down in cash. For the balance of the purchase money, with good security, will be required. Bearing interest from the date thereof, payable in equal installments of one, two and three years each. The legal title will be retained until all the purchase money shall be paid and payment thereof reported to the court.

The farm will be divided by a competent surveyor into three (3) parcels of about 200 acres each to suit purchasers, and so as to secure a sufficiency of wood and water to each.
The purchasers of the whole or one or more parcels may pay down in cash the whole or at least one-third (1/3) of the purchase money, in which case personal security on his bonds will be dispensed with.
The commissioner will demand the cash payment and the execution of the bonds for the deferred payments, immediately after the sale, and on failure of the purchaser to comply promptly, will put up the land again and resell to some other person, who will comply with the terms in all respects.

Possession will be given on the 1st day of January, 1888, or, if desired for seeding this fall, an arrangement will be made with Mr. Marsh, the present tenant, for free ingress and egress for such purpose.
JOHN W. BELL,
Comm'r. Circuit Court of Culpeper.
N. B.—The title to the land is beyond doubt, never having been in litigation, and perfectly clear of all liens.
The plat and diagram of the whole farm, as well as subdivisions thereof, can be seen at my office at Culpeper and at Mr. Marsh's house, and at Mitchell's and Winston's stations.
